MEMORIAL Woodlands will now be able to give bereaved families greater peace of mind.

The Memorial Woodlands at Alveston recently joined The National Society of Allied and Independent Funeral Directors (SAIF).

Pete O'Neill, chief executive officer of SAIF, said: "We at SAIF are thrilled to have Memorial Woodlands on board and look forward to working with them in the coming years. We are delighted with the progress they have made and we respect their ethos and values that they stand for."

SAIF is a trade association whose members are all independent funeral directors, and adhere to a standard code of practice ensuring a trusted and caring service.

Managing director of Memorial Woodlands, Wayne Armstrong said: "We are thrilled with SAIF's decision and look forward to being long-term members of their outstanding society.

"We are pleased we have been officially recognised for the level of service that we have become known for and for being able to provide a source of information and comfort during such difficult times."
